TRIBUTES TO DEPARTED MEMBERS

Paid at Meeting of Women's Association of Park Congregational Church—Reports for Year Were Given—Officers Reported by Nominating Committee Were Elected.

There was a large attendance at the meeting of the Women's Association of Park Congregational church, held in the parish house parlors on Friday afternoon. Mrs. Samuel H. Howe presided and opened the meeting with devotional exercises, followed by the report of the secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Oliver L. Johnson.

Mrs. Howe then spoke affectionately in memory of the members of the association whose death had occurred during the year passed. These were Mrs. F. R. Mason, Mrs. W. Barstow, Miss Ruth Symington, Mrs. C. W. Briggs, Miss Annette Holden, Mrs. Frederick Symington, Mrs. Benjamin F. Brewster, Miss Arlene Vetter. The hymn, "Love's Offering," was sung as a tribute to them also.

Reports were read from the various societies comprising the association, the home and foreign missionary societies, the Daughters of the Covenant, the Cradle Roll, the Parish House association, the Committee of the Interior, the Flower committee, the Hos-

MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER FOR MISS NELLIE HAZLER

Given at the Karoli Homestead in Village of Shewville.

Friends of Miss Nellie Hazler gave a miscellaneous shower in honor of her approaching marriage to the harbor master of the port of Norwich, Herman Juckel, Jr.

Miss Nellie Hazler was hostess at the Karoli homestead at Shewville, which was beautifully decorated with autumn foliage and hallowe'en festoons interspersed with garlands of man-electric lights of varied colors. The affair was gotten up as a hallowe'en surprise and Jack o' lanterns, black cats and witches were in evidence everywhere.

During the evening Mr. Karoli acted as chief witch and with an exceedingly humorous speech suitable to the occasion presented Miss Nellie Hazler a handsomely decorated hallowe'en basket which contained the many gifts of her friends, consisting of cut glass, silver, china and linen.

Long will those present remember the beautiful presentation of the basket by Mrs. Thomas Thorne in costume and the piano solos by Miss Rose Thorne.

A beautiful collation was served and the Gasmata orchestra helped with their merry selections to make the affair a success. Mr. Karoli with Miss Anna T. Kelley as partner gave an exhibition of the latest developments of the tango and maxixe. At a late hour the bride to be was escorted to her home in Mattville.

Among those present were Mrs. Thomas Thorne, Mrs. C. E. Baer, Mrs. George Murphy, Mrs. Charles Weeks and the Misses Rose Thorne, Lillian Metzger, Minnie Hager, Anna T. Kelley, Rosa Wilcox, Nellie Karoli, Irene Quinley, Lena Conrad and Edith Lucy.

Foiled Her.
Betty, a bright little five-year-old, was a hop gossip. It was her custom as soon as she arrived at her grandmother's to say:

"Come into the kitchen, g'ma. I've got a lot to tell you."

And she generally had, being blessed with those popular grownup sisters.

One day, however, she came in looking dejected.

"Any news, Betty?" inquired grandmother.

"Not much," said Betty soberly. "William (Sister Mabel's fiance) was ever last night, but he and Mabel spelled most everything." Judge.

False Hope.
Hence—I cannot help telling you again I love you. Can you not hold out any hope? Phoebe (wearily)—I did hold out one hope, but that's gone now. Hence—What was it? I—Phoebe—I had hoped you wouldn't mention the subject again. Manchester Guardian.

Geological Survey.
"You do not speak to him?"
"No," replied the absolutely girl. "When I passed him I gave him the geological survey."

"The geological survey?"
"Yes; what is commonly known as the 'stone stare.'"—Washington Star.

Tactful.
"When you look at my dear, your eyes always have a happy expression."

"That is without doubt my dear, because they always reflect your adorable image."—Paris Figaro-Bulletin.

Japanese (dial.)
Daimio-no-Rai is the name of the Japanese sun god, while that huge idol with a multitude of hands is known as the Daideth.

Really Fault of the People.
Amateur concerts are probably all right in their way, but the trouble is there are so many people who are unable to appreciate that kind of music.
